

2021-22 Preview

The Drake University men's basketball team enters the 2021-22 campaign with plenty of momentum. The Bulldogs are coming off three of the most successful seasons in program history and the team's first NCAA Tournament appearance in 13 years.

The Bulldog's third-straight 20-win season culminated with an NCAA Tournament win over former MVC rival Wichita State before being edged by eventual Elite 8 team USC.

The Bulldogs return all but two players from that team and have added Iowa High School Player of the Year and top-100 recruit Tucker DeVries to the roster, along with highly touted prep point guard Conor Enright. The team also added fifth-year transfer Ayo Akinwale, who was Omaha's leading scorer a year ago, to give the Bulldogs a veteran roster that will be, on average, nearly 22 years old at the start of the season.

The Bulldogs return a pair of All-MVC selections in Roman Penn and ShanQuan Hemphill. Penn averaged 11.2 points with a league-best 5.5 assists per game last season and was limited to 24 games as he missed the last seven games of the season with a season-ending foot injury. Penn enters the season needing 64 assists to become the Bulldogs' all-time leader.

Hemphill was named second-team All-MVC, MVC Newcomer of the Year, a member of the All-Newcomer and All-Defensive teams. Despite missing a significant portion of the season with a foot injury, he averaged 14.1 points per game while shooting 58.7 percent and hauling in 6.3 rebounds per game. He scored in double-figures in 17 of his 20 games, including three 20-point games.

Veteran guards D.J. Wilkins and Jonah Jackson also return to add to the Bulldogs' experience on the perimeter.

Inside, big man Darnell Brodie is in even better form after debuting in the league last year as one of the Valley's top rebounders at 6.8 per game to go along with 7.8 points per game. He averaged 8.7 points and 7.5 boards per night in league games, with five double-digit rebounding nights and two 20-point games.

The Bulldogs are under fourth-year head coach and two-time MVC Coach of the Year Darian DeVries. He has already racked up 70 wins in three seasons, the most wins in any three years in program history. Three of the program's eight 20-win seasons have come under DeVries as he already ranks seventh in career wins at Drake.

Darian DeVries, the 2018-19 and 2020-21 Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year, is in his third season as the head coach of the Drake men's basketball program.

In his first three seasons, the Bulldogs have won 70 games, to tie for the most of any three-year period in school history and just the second time the program has recorded three-straight 20-win seasons and the team's first NCAA Tournament appearance in 13 years in 2020-21.

Of the eight 20-win seasons in program history, three have come under DeVries, including 24 wins in both 2018-19 and 2020-21 to tie for the third-most in program history. In 2020-21 he also tied a school record with 15 MVC wins.

During his second season he guided the Bulldogs to the program's second-straight 20-win season which marked the first time since 1971 the program had won 20 or more games in consecutive seasons and just the third time it had occurred in program history. Nearly a third of the Bulldogs' 20-win seasons have come under DeVries' leadership.

The 2019-20 season ended in the MVC Tournament semifinals for the second-straight season as the Bulldogs clipped No. 1 seed UNI in the quarterfinals to become the first No. 8 seed to upend a No. 1 seed in tournament history.

That team set a school record for blocks in a season with 132, surpassing the mark of 130 set in his first season. Additionally, the 2019-20 team's 237 three-pointers were the eighth most in season. The team recorded 279 three-pointers in his first season at the helm, the fourth-most in Drake history.

The longtime assistant from Creighton took the reins of the Bulldog program in March, 2018, and inherited a roster with just one returning starter and three returning contributors. He quickly assembled a talented roster and let that squad to its first regular-season Missouri Valley Conference title since 2008 and the program's 12th all-time postseason appearance.

Under his guidance, the Bulldogs led the Valley in scoring at 75.4 points per game to rack up 24 wins and record the program's sixth 20-win season and third most wins in school history.

DeVries' first recruiting class at Drake included a junior college All-American, graduate transfers with all-conference pedigrees, a 7-footer and international talent. That roster eventually earned eight All-MVC honors, including MVC Defensive Player of the Year Nick McGlynn.

His first team began the season by winning the Continental Tire Las Vegas Classic to conclude the non-conference schedule with a 12-4 record before amassing a 12-6 mark in conference action.

Before taking over the Bulldogs' program, DeVries was an assistant coach at Creighton University for 17 years and spent 20 total seasons on staff with the Bluejays. During that span, he helped guide the Bluejays to 19 postseason appearances and 12 NCAA Tournament berths.

DeVries was one of the longest-tenured men's basketball assistant coaches at one school in the nation and assisted the Bluejays in their fifth NCAA Tournament appearance in the last seven years before earning the Drake position. During his time on the Creighton staff under both Dana Altman and Greg McDermott, the program accumulated a record of 460-211 and 231-129 in conference games.

Under his guidance, Creighton had 15 first-team all-conference selections, six conference Players of the Year, three Newcomers of the Year, three Freshmen of the Year and three Defensive Players of the Year. CU has also had six All-American honorees in that time, including Doug McDermott, the first player in 30 years to be named a First Team All-American by the AP in three straight seasons.

Before joining the staff at then Missouri Valley Conference member Creighton in 1998, he already had an extensive background in the Valley as a starter at UNI under coach Eldon Miller. DeVries ranks 31st all-time in career scoring at UNI with 1,084 points and was twice an MVC Scholar-Athlete Team selection. The two-time UNI captain led the Panthers in three-point shooting three years and converted on 44 percent of his attempts as a senior with 3.1 assists per game.

DeVries was a standout athlete in high school at Aplington-Parkersburg (Iowa), and in the spring of 2015 was inducted into the IHSA Hall of Fame for his playing prowess. The oldest of five siblings, DeVries' family boasts a tremendous academic pedigree with all five competing collegiately. His brother, Jared, was an All-American on the football team at the University of Iowa and was a 12-year member of the Detroit Lions, while another brother, Dusty, also played football for the Hawkeyes. His youngest brother, Jay, played football at Wartburg College and his sister, Jodi, was a Second Team All-MVC selection in volleyball at Northern Iowa.

Darian and his wife, Ashley, have one son, Tucker, who is a freshman on the team, and one daughter, Tatum.
